COMPLAINT FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT

Plaintiff Teladoc Health, Inc., for its complaint of patent infringement against Defendant American Well Corporation alleges as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Teladoc Health, Inc. (“Teladoc” or “Plaintiff”) is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware. Teladoc’s principal place of business is in Purchase, New York.

2. On information and belief, Defendant American Well Corporation (“Amwell” or “Defendant”) is a corporation incorporated in the State of Delaware with its principal place of business in Boston, Massachusetts.

NATURE OF ACTION

3. This is a civil action against Defendant for patent infringement under the United States patent laws, as amended, 35 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq. (the “Patent Laws”). This action arises out of Defendant’s making, using, selling, offering to sell, and/or importing into the United States certain devices covered by Teladoc’s patents and/or inducing or contributing to its customers’ direct infringement. Accordingly, Teladoc seeks monetary and injunctive relief under the Patent Laws.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

5. Upon information and belief, Amwell is incorporated in the state of Delaware, and conducts business and has committed a tort in this District, including without limitation Defendant's patent infringement, which causes harm in this State and in this District. Therefore, this Court has personal jurisdiction over Amwell.

6. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1400(b) with respect to Amwell because, on information and belief, Amwell has committed acts of infringement in this District, and is incorporated in the state of Delaware.

BACKGROUND

A. The Technology

7. Teladoc is recognized as the world leader in virtual care and offers the only comprehensive virtual care solution capable of serving organizations and people anywhere.

8. In 2020, Teladoc acquired InTouch Technologies, Inc. ("InTouch"). InTouch provides innovative telehealth capabilities in complex medical environments.

9. InTouch has been recognized as a market-leading telehealth company, receiving recognition for Innovations in Healthcare Technology by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) Educational Activities Board in 2017, and the President's Innovation in Remote Health Care from the American Telemedicine Association in 2005. InTouch has also earned awards such as the Deloitte's Technology Fast 500 Award, Inc. Magazine's Inc. 500 Award, and most recently, Rank #1 for Virtual Care Platforms in 2020 in the KLAS Report.

10. The technology at issue in the asserted patents was developed by Dr. Yulun Wang and his colleagues, while working for InTouch.

11. Dr. Wang is recognized as an expert in the field of virtual medicine by several universities, organizations, and news outlets, including the University of California – Santa Barbara, the National Academy of Engineering, the Today Show, Good Morning America, and CNN.

12. Dr. Wang has also been lauded the “Father of Modern Surgical Robotics” by medical news publication Medgadget.

13. Dr. Wang was the principal inventor of the first FDA-approved surgical robot, AESOP (Automated Endoscopic System for Optimal Positioning), and the ZEUS Robotic Surgical System. The ZEUS Robotic Surgical System was used in the world’s first telesurgery procedure in 2001, and AESOP has been widely used in minimally invasive surgery.

14. Dr. Wang has written over 50 publications and has been an inventor on well over 100 patents.

15. The efforts of InTouch and Dr. Wang have resulted in a portfolio of over 130 patents and patent applications.

B. The Asserted Patents

A true and correct copy of the ’000 Patent is attached as Exhibit I and incorporated herein.

25. Teladoc is the owner, by assignment, of all rights, title, and interest in and to the ’185, ’588, ’418, ’680, ’165, ’765, ’017, ’007, and ’000 Patents (collectively, the “Asserted Patents”).

C. Accused Products

26. Amwell’s products accused of infringement are the C760, C750, C250, and C210 telemedicine carts (“Amwell Carts”), the Horus HD Digital Scope System, and the Thinklabs One Digital Stethoscope (collectively, “Accused Products”).

27. According to Amwell’s web site (<https://business.amwell.com/telemedicine-equipment>), Amwell’s telemedicine carts are “designed to support in- and out-patient care, equipped to manage high- and low-acuity cases to provide timely access to remote specialists”; “bring specialists to where they are needed and allow for complete patient exams- remotely”; “enhance decision making through sharing of images and real-time audio feeds”; and “get a close-up view of the patient with a pan-tilt zoom camera and Far-End-Camera-Control.”

28. According to Amwell’s web site (<https://business.amwell.com/telemedicine-equipment/peripherals/horus-scopes/>), the Horus HD Digital Scope System “comfortably fits in one hand and allows users to naturally see what is being captured on the integrated LCD screen. When connected to a telemedicine cart, the scope shares images and video to enable collaboration between remote teams.”

29. According to Amwell’s web site (<https://business.amwell.com/telemedicine-equipment/peripherals/thinklabs-one-digital-stethoscope/>), the Thinklabs One Digital Stethoscope is “[a]n elegant stethoscope solution offering high-quality audio of heart and lung sounds for all types of telemedicine applications.”

30. On information and belief, Amwell provides its customers with documentation containing instructions for configuring and using the Accused Products.

31. On information and belief, Amwell provides its customers with documentation containing instructions for using the Amwell Carts with third party equipment.

32. On information and belief, Amwell provides its customers a user and installation guide for the C750 Amwell Cart, such as the “Avizia CA750 User & Installation Guide,” which is attached as Exhibit J. The Avizia CA750 User & Installation Guide includes instructions for configuring and using the C750 Amwell Cart.

33. On information and belief, Amwell provides user and installation guides, substantially similar to Exhibit J, for all of its telemedicine carts, including the C760, C250, and C210 Amwell Carts.

34. Attached as Exhibit K is a brochure for the C760 Amwell Cart.

35. Attached as Exhibit L is a brochure for the C250 Amwell Cart.

36. On information and belief, Amwell provides its customers a user manual for the Horus HD Digital Scope System, such as the “Horus Scope Series 3 User Manual,” which is attached as Exhibit M. The Horus Scope Series 3 User Manual includes instructions for configuring and using the Horus HD Digital Scope System.

37. On information and belief, Amwell provides its customers a user manual for the Thinklabs One Digital Stethoscope, which is attached as Exhibit N. The Thinklabs One Digital Stethoscope user manual contains instructions for configuring and using the Thinklabs One Digital Stethoscope.

38. On information and belief, Amwell provides its customers with software for use with the Amwell Carts.

39. On information and belief, Amwell provides its customers with software for use with the Accused Products.

D. Amwell's Knowledge of the Asserted Patents and Accused Products

40. On September 14, 2020, counsel for Teladoc sent a letter to Amwell and its counsel providing notice of the Asserted Patents ("Notice Letter"). Attached as Exhibit O is a copy of the Notice Letter.

41. In the Notice Letter, Teladoc provided notice to Amwell that one or more of the Accused Products infringes the Asserted Patents and identified examples, based upon information to date, of the specific claims infringed for each of the Asserted Patents.

42. On September 15, 2020, Amwell filed an amended Form S-1 Registration Statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission to reference the Notice Letter and Teladoc's infringement allegations. Attached as Exhibit P are excerpts from Amwell's amended S-1 filing.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
DIRECT INFRINGEMENT OF THE '185 PATENT BY AMWELL

43. Teladoc incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1-42 above.

44. The Accused Products directly infringe claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 10, 11, and 13 of the '185 Patent.

45. A chart illustrating direct infringement of claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 10, 11, and 13 of the '185 Patent by the Accused Products is attached as Exhibit Q.

46. On information and belief, Amwell has had knowledge and notice of the '185 Patent, as well as its infringement thereof, at least as early as the date of the Notice Letter.

47. Amwell has directly infringed and continues to directly infringe the '185 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(a) by, among other things, making, using, selling, offering to sell, and/or importing into the United States one or more of the Accused Products that practice one or more claims of the '185 Patent.

48. Amwell's acts of direct infringement of the '185 Patent herein are being committed with full knowledge of Teladoc's rights in the '185 Patent. On information and belief, Amwell is continuing to act despite knowing that its actions constituted direct infringement of a valid patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter. Amwell's acts constitute willful and deliberate infringement, entitling Teladoc to enhanced damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
INDUCED INFRINGEMENT OF THE '185 PATENT BY AMWELL

49. Teladoc incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1-42 above.

50. Amwell has induced infringement of claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 10, 11, and 13 of the '185 Patent.

51. A chart illustrating induced infringement of claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 10, 11, and 13 of the '185 Patent by the Accused Products is attached as Exhibit Q.

52. On information and belief, Amwell has had knowledge and notice of the '185 Patent, as well as its infringement thereof, at least as early as the date of the Notice Letter.

53. On information and belief, since at least the time Amwell received notice, Amwell induced and continues to induce infringement of the '185 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(b) by, among other things, and with specific intent or willful blindness, actively aiding and abetting others to infringe the '185 Patent, including, but not limited to, Amwell's partners, clients, customers, and end users, whose use of one or more of the Accused Products constitutes direct infringement of at least one claim of the '185 Patent.

54. Amwell's actions that aid and abet others, such as its partners, customers, clients, and end users, to infringe include advertising and distributing the Accused Products, providing instruction materials, training, and services regarding the Accused Products, including the user guides of Exhibits J, M, and N, and/or providing software for use with one or more of the Accused Products. On information and belief, Amwell has engaged in such actions with specific intent to cause infringement or with willful blindness to the resulting infringement because Amwell had actual knowledge of the '185 Patent and knowledge that its acts were inducing infringement of the '185 Patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter.

55. Amwell's acts of induced infringement of the '185 Patent herein are being committed with full knowledge of Teladoc's rights in the '185 Patent. On information and belief, Amwell is continuing to act despite knowing that its actions constituted induced infringement of a valid patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter. Amwell's acts constitute willful and deliberate infringement, entitling Teladoc to enhanced damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
CONTRIBUTORY INFRINGEMENT OF THE '185 PATENT BY AMWELL

56. Teladoc incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1-42 above.

57. The Accused Products contributorily infringe claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 10, 11, and 13 of the '185 Patent.

58. A chart illustrating contributory infringement of claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 10, 11, and 13 of the '185 Patent by the Accused Products is attached as Exhibit Q.

59. On information and belief, Amwell has had knowledge and notice of the '185 Patent, as well as its infringement thereof, at least as early as the date of the Notice Letter.

60. Amwell has and continues to contributorily infringe the '185 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(c). With knowledge of the '185 Patent, Amwell has sold, sells, offers to sell, has imported and/or is importing into the United States one or more of the Accused Products to be especially made or adapted for use in an infringement of the '185 Patent. The Accused Products are a material component for use in practicing the '185 Patent and are specifically made and are not a staple article of commerce suitable for substantial noninfringing use. The use of one or more of the Accused Products by Amwell's partners, clients, customers, and end users constitutes direct infringement of at least one claim of the '185 Patent.

61. Amwell's acts of contributory infringement of the '185 Patent herein are being committed with full knowledge of Teladoc's rights in the '185 Patent. On information and belief, Amwell is continuing to act despite knowing that its actions constituted contributory infringement of a valid patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter. Amwell's acts constitute willful and deliberate infringement, entitling Teladoc to enhanced damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
DIRECT INFRINGEMENT OF THE '588 PATENT BY AMWELL

62. Teladoc incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1-42 above.

63. The Accused Products directly infringe claims 1-7 of the '588 Patent.

64. A chart illustrating direct infringement of claims 1-7 of the '588 Patent by the Accused Products is attached as Exhibit R.

65. On information and belief, Amwell has had knowledge and notice of the '588 Patent, as well as its infringement thereof, at least as early as the date of the Notice Letter.

66. Amwell has directly infringed and continues to directly infringe the '588 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(a) by, among other things, making, using, selling, offering to sell, and/or importing into the United States one or more of the Accused Products that practice one or more claims of the '588 Patent.

67. Amwell's acts of direct infringement of the '588 Patent herein are being committed with full knowledge of Teladoc's rights in the '588 Patent. On information and belief, Amwell is continuing to act despite knowing that its actions constituted direct infringement of a valid patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter. Amwell's acts constitute willful and deliberate infringement, entitling Teladoc to enhanced damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
INDUCED INFRINGEMENT OF THE '588 PATENT BY AMWELL

68. Teladoc incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1-42 above.

69. Amwell has induced infringement of claims 1-7 of the '588 Patent.

70. A chart illustrating induced infringement of claims 1-7 by the Accused Products is attached as Exhibit R.

71. On information and belief, Amwell has had knowledge and notice of the '588 Patent, as well as its infringement thereof, at least as early as the date of the Notice Letter.

72. On information and belief, since at least the time Amwell received notice, Amwell induced and continues to induce infringement of the '588 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(b) by, among other things, and with specific intent or willful blindness, actively aiding and abetting others to infringe the '588 Patent, including, but not limited to, Amwell's partners, clients, customers, and end users, whose use of one or more of the Accused Products constitutes direct infringement of at least one claim of the '588 Patent.

73. Amwell's actions that aid and abet others, such as its partners, customers, clients, and end users, to infringe include advertising and distributing the Accused Products, providing instruction materials, training, and services regarding the Accused Products, including the user guides of Exhibits J, M, and N, and/or providing software for use with one or more of the Accused Products. On information and belief, Amwell has engaged in such actions with specific intent to cause infringement or with willful blindness to the resulting infringement because Amwell had actual knowledge of the '588 Patent and knowledge that its acts were inducing infringement of the '588 Patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter.

74. Amwell's acts of induced infringement of the '588 Patent herein are being committed with full knowledge of Teladoc's rights in the '588 Patent. On information and belief, Amwell is continuing to act despite knowing that its actions constituted induced infringement of a valid patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter. Amwell's acts constitute willful and deliberate infringement, entitling Teladoc to enhanced damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
CONTRIBUTORY INFRINGEMENT OF THE '588 PATENT BY AMWELL

77. A chart illustrating contributory infringement of claims 1-7 of the '588 Patent by the Accused Products is attached as Exhibit R.

78. On information and belief, Amwell has had knowledge and notice of the '588 Patent, as well as its infringement thereof, at least as early as the date of the Notice Letter.

79. Amwell has and continues to contributorily infringe the '588 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(c). With knowledge of the '588 Patent, Amwell has sold, sells, offers to sell, has imported and/or is importing into the United States one or more of the Accused Products to be especially made or adapted for use in an infringement of the '588 Patent. The Accused Products are a material component for use in practicing the '588 Patent and are specifically made and are not a staple article of commerce suitable for substantial noninfringing use. The use of one or more of the Accused Products by Amwell's partners, clients, customers, and end users constitutes direct infringement of at least one claim of the '588 Patent.

80. Amwell's acts of contributory infringement of the '588 Patent herein are being committed with full knowledge of Teladoc's rights in the '588 Patent. On information and belief, Amwell is continuing to act despite knowing that its actions constituted contributory infringement of a valid patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter. Amwell's acts constitute willful and deliberate infringement, entitling Teladoc to enhanced damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
DIRECT INFRINGEMENT OF THE '418 PATENT BY AMWELL

81. Teladoc incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1-42 above.

82. The Accused Products directly infringe claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 8, 9-12, and 15-17 of the '418 Patent.

83. A chart illustrating direct infringement of claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 8, 9-12, and 15-17 by the Accused Products is attached as Exhibit S.

84. On information and belief, Amwell has had knowledge and notice of the '418 Patent, as well as its infringement thereof, at least as early as the date of the Notice Letter.

85. Amwell has directly infringed and continues to directly infringe the '418 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(a) by, among other things, making, using, selling, offering to sell, and/or importing into the United States the Accused Products that practice one or more claims of the '418 Patent.

86. Amwell's acts of direct infringement of the '418 Patent herein are being committed with full knowledge of Teladoc's rights in the '418 Patent. On information and belief, Amwell is continuing to act despite knowing that its actions constituted direct infringement of a valid patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter. Amwell's acts constitute willful and deliberate infringement, entitling Teladoc to enhanced damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

EIGHTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
INDUCED INFRINGEMENT OF THE '418 PATENT BY AMWELL

87. Teladoc incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1-42 above.

On information and belief, since at least the time Amwell received notice, Amwell induced and continues to induce infringement of the '680 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(b) by, among other things, and with specific intent or willful blindness, actively aiding and abetting others to infringe the '680 Patent, including, but not limited to, Amwell's partners, clients, customers, and end users, whose use of one or more of the Accused Products constitutes direct infringement of at least one claim of the '680 Patent.

111. Amwell's actions that aid and abet others, such as its partners, customers, clients, and end users, to infringe include advertising and distributing the Accused Products, providing instruction materials, training, and services regarding the Accused Products, including the user guides of Exhibits J, M, and N, and/or providing software for use with one or more of the Accused Products. On information and belief, Amwell has engaged in such actions with specific intent to cause infringement or with willful blindness to the resulting infringement because Amwell had actual knowledge of the '680 Patent and knowledge that its acts were inducing infringement of the '680 Patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter.

112. Amwell's acts of induced infringement of the '680 Patent herein are being committed with full knowledge of Teladoc's rights in the '680 Patent. On information and belief, Amwell is continuing to act despite knowing that its actions constituted induced infringement of a valid patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter. Amwell's acts constitute willful and deliberate infringement, entitling Teladoc to enhanced damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

TWELFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
CONTRIBUTORY INFRINGEMENT OF THE '680 PATENT BY AMWELL

113. Teladoc incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1-42 above.

114. The Accused Products contributorily infringe claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 12-14, and 21-23 of the '680 Patent.

115. A chart illustrating contributory infringement of claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 12-14, and 21-23 by the Accused Products is attached as Exhibit T.

116. On information and belief, Amwell has had knowledge and notice of the '680 Patent, as well as its infringement thereof, at least as early as the date of the Notice Letter.

117. Amwell has and continues to contributorily infringe the '680 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(c). With knowledge of the '680 Patent, Amwell has sold, sells, offers to sell, has imported and/or is importing into the United States one or more of the Accused Products to be especially made or adapted for use in an infringement of the '680 Patent. The Accused Products are a material component for use in practicing the '680 Patent and are specifically made and are not a staple article of commerce suitable for substantial noninfringing use. The use of one or more of the Accused Products by Amwell's partners, clients, customers, and end users constitutes direct infringement of at least one claim of the '680 Patent.

118. Amwell's acts of contributory infringement of the '680 Patent herein are being committed with full knowledge of Teladoc's rights in the '680 Patent. On information and belief, Amwell is continuing to act despite knowing that its actions constituted contributory infringement of a valid patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter. Amwell's acts constitute willful and deliberate infringement, entitling Teladoc to enhanced damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

213. Amwell's acts of contributory infringement of the '000 Patent herein are being committed with full knowledge of Teladoc's rights in the '000 Patent. On information and belief, Amwell is continuing to act despite knowing that its actions constituted contributory infringement of a valid patent since at least the date of the Notice Letter. Amwell's acts constitute willful and deliberate infringement, entitling Teladoc to enhanced damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

DAMAGES AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

214. As a result of Amwell's infringement of the Asserted Patents, Teladoc has suffered and will continue to suffer damages. Under 35 U.S.C. § 284, Teladoc is entitled to recover from Amwell the damages adequate to compensate for such infringement in an amount to be determined at trial.

215. Amwell's acts of infringement have caused and will continue to cause irreparable harm to Teladoc, for which there is no adequate remedy at law, entitling Teladoc to injunctive relief.

JURY DEMAND

216. Teladoc demands a trial by jury on all issues.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Teladoc prays for the following relief:

- a. A judgment holding that Amwell has infringed the Asserted Patents.
- b. That Amwell and its affiliates, employees, agents, officers, directors, attorneys, successors, and assigns and all those acting on behalf of or in concert with Amwell be permanently enjoined from infringement, inducement of infringement, and contributory infringement of each of the Asserted Patents;
- c. That Teladoc be awarded damages for Amwell's infringement of the Asserted Patents, together with interest (both pre- and post-judgment interest), costs, and disbursements as determined by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284, including enhanced damages up to three times the amount of damages found or measured, but in any event no less than a reasonable royalty;
- d. That this action be adjudged an exceptional case and Teladoc be awarded its attorneys' fees in this action pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285;
- e. That Teladoc is entitled to reasonable costs, including attorneys' fees and expenses; and
- f. That Teladoc be awarded such other equitable or legal relief as this Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.
